NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, I, Wendy Jacobs, Chair of the Durham Board of County Commissioners and on behalf of the Durham Board of County Commissioners, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 19, 2019 as in Durham County, North Carolina.

This the 10th day of June 2019.

Wendy Jacobs, Chair
Durham Board of County Commissioners

Tiffany Bell, Health Educator at Duke University introduced Dr. John J. Strouse, Adult Sickle Cell Program Director at Duke University. Dr. Strouse stated sickle cell did not get the deserved attention and was not discussed enough to make people more aware. He added he would be at Duke University Hospital on Wednesday, June 19, 2019 to celebrate the 10th anniversary of World Sickle Cell Awareness Day. Chair Jacobs invited Ms. Bell and Dr. Strouse to setup a table at the Health and Human Services Building on June 19th. She also thanked Peri Manns, General Manager and staff for lighting the Taurus sculpture red outside of the Administration II Building in observance of Sickle Cell Awareness Day.

Consent Agenda

Chair Jacobs asked the Board if they requested to pull or comment on any item on the Consent Agenda.

Chair Jacobs commented on item 19-0280, stating the surplus property was to be used by the City for affordable housing.

Chair Jacobs commented on item 19-0288, stating the grant awards from several companies would be used to create new jobs. She applauded Andy Miracle, Economic Development Officer and staff for working with the companies. Mr. Miracle mentioned AveXis, Pairwise and Locus Bioscience received funding from North Carolina Biotechnology Center and had respective community benefit agreements.

Chair Jacobs commented on item 19-0266, stating the grant was made possible by the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and would help continue with collaboration of the Durham County Library and Durham County Health Department.

Hearing no additional comments, Chair Jacobs entertained a motion for approval.

Commissioner Reckhow moved, seconded by Commissioner Howerton to approve all items on the Consent Agenda.

The motion carried unanimously.

*19-0185 Budget Ordinance Amendment No. 19CC00051 Appropriating Lebanon Fire Tax District Fund Fund Balance ($110,000), and Transferring to the General Fund for Personal Costs that were not included in the Original Budget for FY2018-19.

Public Hearings

19-0299 Public Hearing to Consider Allocating Economic Development Funds to Parexel International Corporation

Andy Miracle, Economic Development Officer gave an overview of the Parexel International Corporation. He explained Parexel would open a second U.S. headquarters in Durham County, adding 264 jobs and investing $1.7 million in the facility. Mr. Miracle stated certain performance goals were being met by Parexel related to timing, the amount of investment, employment creation and maintenance of the created jobs as well as partnership engagement criteria.

Commissioner Howerton inquired about the incentives being given to Parexel. Mr. Miracle responded the payment was to be paid over a five (5) year period and payment would occur after performance verification has been met, incremental job creation, investment and criteria targets were met.

Chair Jacobs asked for the minimum amount being committed to Parexel. Mr. Miracle replied the numbers would be established for the project. Chair Jacobs stated she would like specific numbers and details in the contract.

Chair Jacobs opened the public hearing.

Bryan Fox, Vice President of Public Policy, Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce stated he was proud to partner with the State to bring another addition to the County tax base and spectrum of career opportunities for Durham residents.

Commissioner Reckhow thanked Mr. Miracle for the partnership engagement criteria and summer internships with new companies seeking incentives from the County.

Chair Jacobs closed the public hearing and asked to entertain a motion.

Commissioner Reckhow moved, seconded by Commissioner Howerton to approve allocating a total of $120,500 in Economic Development Investment funds to Parexel International Corporation.

The motion carried unanimously.

Directives:

- Chair Jacobs requested specific numbers and contract details on Parexel International Corporation.

19-0237 Public Hearing on the FY2019-20 County Manager's Recommended Budget

Chair Jacobs opened the public hearing. She asked everyone to limit their comments to two (2) minutes each due to the large number of citizens signed up to speak.

Mickey Tezai thanked the Board and County Manager for being patient and addressing concerns with the EMS leadership. He added there were concerns with the merger and work being done to repair relationships.

The following citizens signed up to speak about supporting the Durham Public Schools proposed budget: Ann Rebeck; Michelle Burton; Nicholas Graber-Grace; Dabney Hopkins; Jeannine Sato; Christie Masinick; Kimberly Elliott and Don Rosenberg.

Cyril (CJ) Broderick, Jr., President/CEO, Greater Durham Black Chamber of Commerce wanted the County to include economic development with small black owned businesses.

The following citizens signed up to speak about supporting salary increases for Durham County employees as recommended by the salary compensation study: Carl Kenney; Aidil Ortiz and Dr. Natasha Green.

The following citizens signed up to speak about supporting the County Sheriff's budget: Angie Steele; Thelma White and Vanita Alston.

The following citizens signed up to seek funding and support of the Legal Aid and diversion of rent in Durham County: Sarah D'Amato, Sheri Starks, Leigh Ann Shore, Zack Roberson.

Brian Callaway did not support full funding for Durham Public Schools and asked that the details of the budget be reviewed.

Dr. Michelle Laws stated people of color were left behind and wanted budget funding distributed equally.

Mike Ellis stated Durham Public Schools maintenance department only received a one (1) percent pay increase and only had four (4) plumbers to cover 53 buildings.

Serena Sabring and Quisha Mulette addressed concern with public safety, community solutions, living wages, public health, police officers and the detention center.

Dr. E. L. Allision asked the Board for additional reports on the recommended budget.

Andrea "Muffin" stated the budget should invest more in children, livable wages and affordable housing.

Chair Jacobs thanked everyone for attending the meeting and expressing their care for the Durham community. She stated as always it was tough to complete the recommended budget but the Board heard everyone and appreciated their public comments.

Commissioner Howerton was delighted to see the turn-out from the community; adding how important it was for citizens to be included when allocating tax dollars.

19-0283 Public Hearing for the Durham County ACCESS Merger with the City of Durham

Linda Thomas, Transportation Program Manager explained the history of Durham County ACCESS and discussed moving forward with the merger with the City of Durham. She added if approved, the merger would go into effect during the first quarter of fiscal year 2019-2020.

Chair Jacobs asked if the Champions in Transportation Awards would continue after the merger. Ms. Thomas responded the awards were not included in the interlocal agreement, but she would discuss with the City to see if the awards could be continued. Chair Jacobs emphasized the importance of recognizing citizens for their use of public transportation.

Chair Jacobs opened the public hearing.

Natalie Murdock, citizen supported the Durham County ACCESS merger with the City of Durham.

Chair Jacobs closed the public hearing and asked to entertain a motion.

Commissioner Reckhow moved, seconded by Commissioner Carter to approve the Durham County ACCESS merger with the City of Durham GoDurham Paratransit (ACCESS) Service.

The motion carried unanimously.

19-0308 Federal Poverty Guidelines Rule Proposal

Ben Rose, Department of Social Services (DSS) Director discussed how the Office of Management and Budget were proposing a federal rule change that would impact how the federal poverty guidelines were calculated. He added the change would shift from using consume price index to using the chained consumer price index. Mr. Rose stated millions of people across the country would not qualify for federal poverty under the proposed federal rule change. He added potential impacts could include less federal funding coming into the State. Mr. Rose stated comments were accepted until June 21, 2019 and suggested the Board submit comments before the deadline. He added living wages were not reflected in the federal poverty guidelines.

Chair Jacobs asked the press to inform the community about the federal poverty guidelines rule proposal. She also recognized Tara Fikes, Chair of the DSS Board.

Commissioner Reckhow suggested County Manager Davis write a letter and forward it to the Office of Management and Budget as well as the congressional delegation. Chair Jacobs suggested to share the letter with Kevin Leonard, Executive Director at North Carolina Association of County Commissioners (NCACC) and to submit the letter through the portal to make sure it reached the proper individuals. Mr. Rose replied a letter could also be faxed.

Commissioner Howerton asked about the current consumer price index and projected chained consumer price index. Mr. Rose replied chained consumer price index was projected to be lowered by about one

(1) to two (2) percent and continued to be lowered over the next ten years. Commissioner Howerton asked for income numbers. Mr. Rose responded estimated federal annual income limit was around $12,000 for a 1-person household and $21,300 for a family of three (3). He added 60 percent of citizens receiving assistance had some source of income and 30 percent were seniors.

Directives:

- Commissioner Reckhow asked Ben Rose to work with County Manager Davis to submit a letter to the Office of Management and Budget and congressional delegation.
- Chair Jacobs requested the letter be sent to Kevin Leonard, Executive Director of NCACC also.

Closed Session

Chair Jacobs stated the board was requested to adjourn to Closed Session to consult with an attorney employed or retained by the public body in order to preserve the attorney-client privilege between the attorney and the public body, which privilege is hereby acknowledged pursuant to G.S. 143-318.11(a)(3), in the matter of the following:
