

Little River County Preserve

The 359-acre Little River County Preserve protects water quality and wildlife habitat in northern Durham. 2.2 miles of trails, accessible from 7321 Matthews Rd., allow visitors to experience dramatic bluffs, lush floodplain, and serene upland forest, all less than a thirty-minute drive from downtown Durham.

